

WHY CHOOSE

All assignments large or small will be conducted with the utmost respect and professionalism.

GGUK are always on call 24hrs a day, 7 days a week, with reports provided over the phone or electronically.

GGUK strive to build lasting relationships with clients', whether you require security or more tactical operational services GGUK provide increased protection to our clients' personnel, business and assets.

GGUK security officers are an extremely experienced and professional world-class tactical unit of ex British military, government agency personnel. Our specialists and very well respected security officers are a big part of our continued success, we are a strong family unit with each officer upholding the highest of standards. We love what we do and love providing clients' with nothing but the best service possible. We have a multitude of advanced resources at our disposal for the unique needs of each individual client, with the ability to provide everything under one roof, GGUK really is a one stop executive security shop.